17:07:18 From martin clarkson : trent bosch has a new site that he puts lots of demos on

17:07:37 From Don Doyle : AWGB on facebook

17:08:16 From Charles Rush : and i have tod raines @ woodturning tool store?

17:08:20 From martin clarkson : <https://virtualwoodturningdemos.com>

17:10:26 From Stephen Rouse : I have to change back to ipad i'm dead on pc

17:11:49 From Charles Rush : hi cynthia!

17:13:49 From Cynthia Gibson : Hello Charles

17:16:00 From Don Doyle : plus she got to empty the wine bottles😂

17:16:46 From Derrel Cone : Can we get a copy of the pattern
17:18:24 From Charles Rush : we're in colorado. current outside humidity is actually high at 30%. do we really need to "dry" our wood?
17:19:04 From Derrel Cone : have you used stablized wood
17:20:22 From Charles Rush : i have not. just starting again with turning but have made a lot of furniture. wood here moves A LOT and am now getting to use the twisty stuff in the lathe!
17:24:15 From Cynthia Gibson : <http://www.cindydrozda.com/>
17:27:40 From Don Doyle/Rubber Chucky : how about soap stone/alabaster?
17:28:37 From Eric Johnson : what size jaws do you prefer?
17:28:52 From Cynthia Gibson : Many of the tools Cindy uses in this demo are available through her website.
17:29:34 From John Duckett : what is the brand of chuck you are using?
17:30:30 From Rick Bucker : Is the 40/40 bowl gouge U, V or parabolic?
17:32:06 From Mark Forry : what is the live center in tail stock?
17:32:22 From Glen Crandall : How do you measure the angle of the wing
17:32:28 From Cynthia Gibson : Cindy sells this live center
17:48:16 From John Howard : I've heard that called scooping out the cove
17:55:40 From Chukk Browder : Cindy, is that a 3/8 or 1/4 " gouge?
17:56:49 From Cynthia Gibson : Sharpening Gouges: <https://youtu.be/rhEewtRlkNA>
18:03:48 From Charles Rush : everything is on your 400 grit cbn?
18:12:41 From Pedro's Laptop : Hi Maryalice
18:13:36 From Maryalice Birk : Hi Pedro!
18:16:25 From Rick Bucker : What will you be demonstrating for the virtual AAW symposium?
18:18:28 From Cynthia Gibson : Yes Cindy is one of the presenters!
18:18:58 From Cynthia Gibson : Opps! sorry Rick
18:20:46 From Steve Johnson : lost audio at break
18:21:16 From Charles Rush : denver! city by the bay!
18:22:15 From Charles Rush : thin == fragile. if you have cats, not thin!
18:22:25 From Steve Johnson : no audio
18:22:30 From Don Doyle/Rubber Chucky : don't forget to feed the cat
18:22:46 From Jack Roberts : and purple sea urchins from California are endangering the kelp forest there. Good to diminish their numbers.
18:22:47 From Dustin Cook : In practice do you prefer the 10V or the M42 finial gouge that you sell? I have a CBN grinding wheel for sharpening.
18:23:06 From Charles Rush : you can also exit and re-enter
18:23:18 From Joseph Muench : Where do you source your nice woods... such as that pear, African blackwood, etc.
18:24:27 From Corey G : can we share our finials with you in future?

if so how?

18:25:12 From Charles Rush : austin hardwoods

18:25:44 From Jack Roberts : Ligustrum in the SouthEast is an excellent "Privet hedge"

18:26:08 From Rick Bucker : Do you need to use an N95 mask or other mask for sanding?

18:27:53 From Jack Roberts : It grows in my yard

18:28:13 From Charles Rush : privet hedge grows like weeds... find a neighbor doing some spirng trimming!

18:28:17 From Glenn Dornak : can you achieve the same angles and bevels using the vari-grind wolverine sharpening system?

18:28:17 From Rick Bucker : Are their woods that you would not turn due to toxicity?

18:28:26 From Jack Roberts : Ligustrum grows like crazy in Florida

18:28:28 From Charles Rush : talk to an arborist/tree trimming service

18:28:39 From Derrel Cone : just cut down a bush... have to take it off burn pile

18:30:02 From Derrel Cone : mimosa and cedar get me...

18:30:10 From Don Prorak : Any tips on how you visualize the curves between the design points?

18:30:50 From Dustin Cook to Cindy Drozda(Privately) : In day to day use do you prefer the 10V vs M42 version for your 3/8" finial gouge? I have a CBN wheel.

18:31:30 From Tony Aktines : do you cover sharpening with the Wolverine on your sharpening video in YouTube?

18:33:03 From Derrel Cone : where is good source for platform

18:33:16 From Rick Bergquist : is it all possible to get these grinds on a Tormek? Or at least maintain them?

18:33:16 From Worth Holmes : Ron BrownsBest has a 40/40 wolverine jig that really works great for $30.

18:33:50 From Derrel Cone : source for jig

18:34:58 From Corey G : just wanted to say you inspire me a lot. I only have a mini lathe, a 6 foot by 7 foot storage closet and I love making Christmas ornaments.

18:36:12 From Derrel Cone : source for your platform

18:36:38 From Don Doyle/Rubber Chucky : Woodturners Wonders has CBN wheels for Tormek

18:37:09 From John Magee : Source for the Vector setup is Hannes. enter Hannes in your search engine and it will pop up,

18:37:52 From Cynthia Gibson : woodworkers emporium is a source for platforms

18:38:26 From Joseph Muench : Ashley Harwood also sells those platforms on her website.

18:38:57 From Charles Rush : <https://hannestool.com/product/vector-grind-fixture/>

18:39:22 From alan templeton : woodworkers emporium is taking orders now for what was told will be their last run of Stuart's platforms

18:39:34 From Mark Forry : What was the name of the tool rest you showed?

18:40:17 From Cynthia Gibson : www.Ashleyharwood.com source for platforms
18:41:48 From Rick Bucker : Can you use a chunky finial support? Would that help?
18:44:48 From Don Doyle/Rubber Chucky : you can put a little piece of paper towel to prevent that
18:49:28 From Derrel Cone : did you answer source for tool rest...
18:50:05 From Don Prorak : It said "Sinner", so assuming Steve.
18:50:14 From Greg Bianchi : Advanced Lathe Tools
18:51:12 From Greg Bianchi : #563-340-2938
18:51:39 From Rick Bucker : What type of pencil are you using to make the marks?
18:53:16 From Chukk Browder : what is the approximate diameter of the shaft below the onion?
18:55:19 From Chukk Browder : where your pencil mark is
19:00:29 From alan templeton : any product on the pads
19:00:38 From Cynthia Gibson : Sandpaper: TurningWood.com
19:01:52 From Derrel Cone : what model is tool rest... standard final rest??
19:02:16 From Stephen Rouse : my headstock end is off screen. iPad issues.
19:03:44 From Stephen Rouse : double tap. thanks
19:09:04 From Don Prorak : It looks like the bottom cove is a complimentary curve to the bottom of the onion bead. ??
19:13:39 From Durward McLaughlin : Could you tell us again the name of the Merka sanding material
19:14:04 From Derrel Cone : Look at Steve Sinners website... is your tool rest the stand final rest
19:15:09 From Greg Bianchi : It's called finial tool rest
19:16:58 From Greg Bianchi : Do you still use permanent marker (prior DVD) to make light wood black?
19:20:57 From Dan Luttrell : Do you ever use fountain pen ink to add color?
19:25:20 From Michael Morris to Cindy Drozda(Privately) : how do you protect when shipping?
19:29:34 From Tony Aktines : how would you size that tall one differently?
19:30:25 From Tony Aktines : no, the other one with the 2 same size parts
19:32:23 From Gordon Rowland to Cindy Drozda(Privately) : Thank you for teaching balance.
19:32:26 From Glen Crandall : how long would it take to make this finial
19:32:41 From Arthur Rouse : Brilliant Cindy
19:32:50 From Gordon Rowland to Cindy Drozda(Privately) : Cindy
19:32:58 From Charles Rush : clapclapclapclapclapclapclapclapclap!!!!
19:33:07 From Tony Aktines : yes, that's the one, thank you!
19:33:28 From Worth Holmes : Very good job, Cindy. I certainly enjoyed it!
19:33:33 From Don Prorak : How do you deal with a wife who doesn't like finials?

19:33:34 From Timothy Mehling : Excellent presentation. Looking forward to your next one. Thank You.

19:33:35 From Tod Raines : thanks Cindy

19:33:45 From martin clarkson : great demo cindy thanks for your time

19:33:57 From Derrel Cone : thanks!!!

19:34:06 From alan templeton : is tonight my night I need a reference piece

19:34:06 From Tony Aktines : great job Cindy, thank you very much!

19:36:09 From Pat Jenkins : Thanks for a great demo Cindy!

19:36:19 From Charles Rush : thanks, cindy!!!

19:36:21 From Jim Howe : Another great demo!!
